Exhibit features youths' photos

Gabriel Valdez 22.AUG.07

SAN ANTONIO — International photography festival Fotoseptiembre USA will hold its opening reception Saturday, Aug. 25, from 2-4 p.m at Bihl Haus Arts, 2803 Fredericksburg Rd.

The exhibit will run through Sept. 29 and will feature selected entries from the Bexar Land Trust's Picture Your World Youth Photo Project and the Inter-Generational Nature Photo Workshop.

Bihl Haus Arts is free and open to the public Friday and Saturday, 1-4 p.m. Call 210-383-9723 for more information.

The Youth Photo Project is a series of workshops available to area youth in which professional photographers hold workshops teaching children camera use and technique in taking photos.

Workshops have taken place at the San Antonio Botanical Garden and various nature preserves. Open to any area served by the Bexar Land Trust, including Wilson County, children ages 8-18 can pick and choose which workshops they wish to join.

The year-round program costs $10 per workshop, with a waived fee for those who qualify. For more information call the Bexar Land Trust at 210-222-8430.
