John Keoni Viriyapunt has "always been fascinated with stairs." In "Alapi'i -- Series 2," digital images of the sinuous curves and hard-edged geometry of staircases from here to Bangkok, the photographer makes a good case for his fixation.

A Fotoseptiembre USA signature exhibit, the show, whose title means steps or stairs in Hawaiian, is currently on display at Silo, 1133 Austin Highway. The opening reception is 6:30 p.m. Sept. 24.

Viriyapunt's show is one of the first out of the gate for the annual photography festival which takes place largely in September, as the name implies. Other Fotoseptiembre USA early birds include "Small Town Texas," an exhibition of photographs by Ricardo Romo, president of UTSA, which opens Saturday (Aug. 22) at the Witte Museum and exhibits by Kemp Davis and Jaroslav Poncar, which open with a reception 5 p.m. Saturday, at Gallery Nord.

For a complete schedule of Fotoseptiembre USA events and exhibits go to the festival web site.
