Sure, it's still only Agosto, but that's not stopping Fotoseptiembre USA. The photography festival kicks into gear this weekend with a handful of shows including "Small Town Texas." The exhibit of photographs by Ricardo Romo opens Saturday at the Witte Museum, 3801 Broadway. Romo, president of UTSA, traveled to more than 75 towns (including nearby Waring) in the span of a year to photograph the vestiges of small-town life. The exhibit continues through Oct. 4.

More exhibits: Also opening Saturday — exhibits by Kemp Davis and Jaroslav Poncar at Gallery Nord, 2009 N.W. Military Hwy. Currently on display, "Alapi'i – Series 2," a Fotoseptiembre USA signature exhibit of works by John Keoni Viriyapunt, at Silo, 1133 Austin Hwy.
