

It's that time of year again where everyone shows off the best photography the city has to offer. I know there's lots going on for this year's 15th anniversary of FotoSeptiembre USA festival with many shows

Opening this First Friday, but please don't miss the show here at Rendon Photography & Fine Art. Because so many shows are going on at once I'm extending my hours and staying open till 10:30pm. Come by and enjoy the show.
